To Erect Lighting Plant.

Following much preliminary discussion and consideration, backed by the reports of successful municipal lighting plants in various sections of the United States, the Orange Common Council Monday night unanimously agreed on two propositions. One was to build a plant in conjunction with the water pumping station in Chestnut street; the other was to engage James M. Seymour, Jr., as special engineer in charge of the work. The plant is to be built under the so-called Newark law, whose advantage over the Jones law is, to some people, that no referendum is appended. A plant can be built under this act without referring the question to the voters at a special or general election, when the uninformed, unintelligent or purchasable voters might defeat the proposition.

Under the resolution engaging Mr. Seymour he is to be paid five per cent. of the total cost, provided this percentage does not exceed $3,500. This is based on his estimate of the entire plant costing not more than $70,000. If every proposal for the plant exceeds $75,000 and the Council decides not to proceed with the erection of the works, he is to receive nothing. But if the figures do not exceed $75,000 and the Council should decide not to proceed with the erection, he is to receive $500. Furthermore, he is to operate the plant for six months after its completion.

Rockland County Fair.

Great preparations are being made for the annual Rockland county fair at Orangeburg, N. Y., Labor Day week, September 3 to 8. More than $10,000 have been spent in altering and enlarging the grounds, and the grand stand has been enlarged so as to seat 2,500 people. The purpose is to be given for the trotting and running races are the largest ever given at a county fair. About $5,000 will be awarded to the winners.

The Catholic Lyceum.

A minstrel entertainment and carnival under the auspices of the Catholic Lyceum will be held on the grounds of the lyceum September 13, 14 and 15. On the opening night there will be a street parade of the various Catholic societies, headed by the Arlington Protective Band, which will also give a concert. On Friday the Newark Letter-carriers' Band will give a concert, and on Saturday there will be an athletic carnival and prize bowling.

Letter from Europe.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

SIR: My last letter closed with mentioning the cleanliness of the streets etc., at The Hague; in fact, this same condition prevails throughout Holland. Some of our party remarked that the extreme cleanliness was almost painful; as for me I am willing to suffer this kind of pain, and those of our party who were affected unpleasantly must have been relieved on arriving at Antwerp, where it cannot be said that it is "painfully" clean, nor in any city in Belgium as far as I had opportunity to judge.

Antwerp has many old buildings and objects of great interest to Americans, among which are the museum and cathedral. The first contains printing processes and type from its first inception to within the recent past, and I noted to my surprise that etching on copper had been done there several hundred years ago, and the work produced (as far as I could judge) is not excelled at the present time. The cathedral in its architecture and marvellous color effects of the windows is celebrated, but it is best remembered because of the two great paintings by Rubens which it contains, to wit—"The Crucifixion" and the "Taking from the Cross." Any observer who will fix his eyes on these paintings with thoughts of what the paintings portray, will be overcome with awe and solemnity, and on departing desire to see no more paintings. All that I had seen up to that time and since I remember as very pretty, but not great, with the exception of Raphael's and Murillo's Madonna and Child at Dresden. The painting of this subject by the former is by far the most noted, but I confess that I am not sufficient of a judge of paintings to say which is the greater, but accept the judgment as expressed by real and worthy critics.

The next city visited was Brussels, which will ever live in my memory because of its gayety, though it is a fact that there are a number of buildings celebrated for exquisite architecture, among which of greatest note is the cathedral, and of old style the city hall, both of which should be visited, as also the National Bank of Belgium which is a great building, but I think is much too large for the country and it is not nearly all made use of. Most visitors to Brussels have the desire to purchase lace and that is a most natural desire, but I advise everybody to make their purchases of Brussels lace at Antwerp.

However, if the purchase is made at Brussels, I would most urgently advise not to go to the factory or store where the "porter" of the hotel sends you. I have paid for this experience. The "porter" in the hotel on the Continent is a linguist of first rank, and the most important person in any hotel, and has many ways to make himself useful to strangers at no pecuniary loss to himself.

From Brussels I went to Koeln (Cologne), and up the Rhine, about which is a future letter.

PURE FOODS.

THE "FIGGE" HAM.

The Figge packing and curing plant is an immense establishment where cleanliness is insisted upon.

Every one of the corn fed hogs which are constantly received by us must pass under the trained eye of United States government inspectors on duty at our factory. Only such as are up to required standard are used for food. Figge Hams are cured by a private process (used by us for years) producing a most delicious flavor peculiarly their own, and the meat is of a delicate pink color, moist, sweet and tender. No injurious preservatives of any kind are used in our pork products.

Insist on Having the Figge Brand and do not allow your dealer to give you any other.

This is the Day of
PURE FOODS.

PURITY SIGNIFIES HEALTH.

Goodheart Extracts are pure—being pure oil less in proportion than aculebrate extracts, as less of Goodheart's Extracts are required for the flavoring of foods. Then, too, Goodheart's Vanilla (as do all their extracts) produces richness of flavor peculiarly its own.

Always insist on having the best of extracts (GOODHEART'S), as cheap extracts are poisonous. Don't forget, the name Goodheart stands for extract excellence.

If your dealer does not sell our extracts send us his name and address and we will see that your order is filled.
